CNHW STUDY DAY 2024

The CNHW Association invites researchers to our exciting Annual Study Day, focusing on healthcare sustainability and the well-being of professionals and informal carers. Collaborate, network, and develop preliminary research outlines for the upcoming SNF call on health and well-being. Participate for a chance to win an award for the best research outline!

- Network with like-minded researchers who share your interests.
- Enjoy a productive environment with provided food and refreshments.
- Our team is available to assist and address any queries you may have.
